

We'll Be Here to Pay Your Claims.

When the need for long-term care services arises, our policyholders can count on us. They know their Mutual of Omaha long-term care insurance policy will help them pay for covered services. They also know our claims representatives are here to guide them every

Claims Paid*

We sold our first long-term care insurance policy back in 1987. Since then, we've paid benefits to help people get the long-term care services they need. This includes:

- Over $1.3 billion in benefits paid since 1987
- Over $11 million paid every month
- Over $2.5 billion under management to ensure future claim payments

Who Needs Care*

According to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, most people turning age 65 will need long-term care services at some point in their lives.* Our claims data shows that women receive more care than men.

- Women - 64%
- Men - 36%
- Average age when a claim begins - 81

Where Care is Given*

Most people receive long-term care services at home. Mutual of Omaha's long-term care insurance policies pay benefits to policyholders for care they receive in whatever setting is right for them, including:

- At home - 48%
- In an assisted living facility - 29%
- In a nursing home - 23%

Why People Need Care*

Chronic conditions make people more likely to need long-term care services. The most common conditions for which we pay long-term care claims include:

- Dementia
- Neurological
- Advanced Arthritis
- Cardiac

Data based on Mutual of Omaha's national internal claims data, 2020

Most people who purchase a long-term care insurance policy hope they'll never need to use it. But when they do, they can be confident we'll be here to pay their claims.
